

BABA HARARE

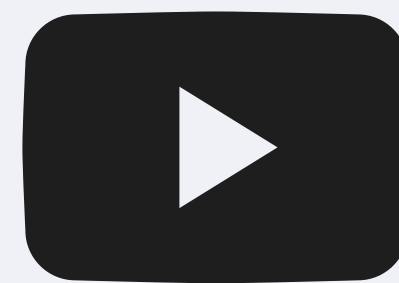

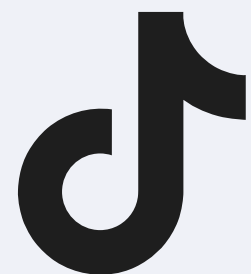

Musician & Influencer

BIOGRAPHY

Baba Harare is a celebrated Afro-fusion artist and virtuoso guitarist whose musical journey spans more than two decades. Born and raised in Masvingo, Zimbabwe, he honed his craft within some of the country's most influential Sungura ensembles, developing a distinctive guitar style that blends technical mastery with deep cultural roots.

He rose to national and international prominence as the lead guitarist of Jah Prayzah's acclaimed Third Generation Band, where his expressive playing and innovative arrangements helped shape a defining era of contemporary Zimbabwean music.

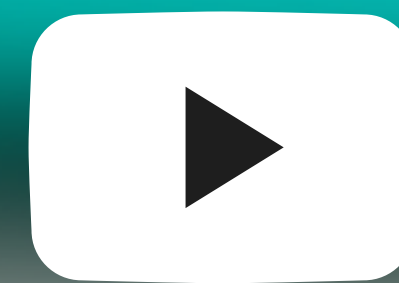

Drawing inspiration from traditional Zimbabwean sounds such as Jiti rhythms and Gule drum traditions, Baba Harare seamlessly fuses heritage with modern Afro-fusion, creating music that is both timeless and forward-thinking. His sound is marked by intricate guitar lines, rich rhythmic layers, and an unmistakable spiritual depth.

BABA HARARE

With 10 albums and over fifteen hit songs to his name, Baba Harare continues to push artistic boundaries. He is currently working on his eighth studio album alongside a traditional EP, reaffirming his commitment to cultural preservation and musical evolution.

Renowned for his magnetic stage presence and unparalleled guitar skills, Baba Harare invites audiences on an extraordinary musical odyssey, one where Afro-fusion melodies and infectious rhythms reign supreme.
